

Battles of the Revolution

As the British troops started toward the town of Concord, Massachusetts, Paul Revere rode through the night warning the colonists. British troops met up with about 70 minutemen along the way, in Lexington. No one knows who fired the first shot, but heavy firing commenced. The American Revolution had begun. Use the map to learn more about the battles that followed this first “shot heard round the world.”

1. The dates when the Battle of Yorktown took place: _____
2. The name of the river near the Battle of Quebec: _____
3. The name of the state where the Battle of Guilford Courthouse was fought: _____
4. The direction of Kings Mountain from Camden: _____
5. The date when the Battle of Cowpens took place: _____
6. The result of the battle at Bennington: _____
7. The names of the three major battles that took place in Massachusetts: _____
8. The result of the Battle of Brandywine: _____
9. The names of two major battles in New York: _____
10. The result of the battle at Monmouth: _____
11. The names of the two battles that began the Revolutionary War: _____
12. The result of the Germantown battle: _____
13. The state in which the battle at Trenton took place: _____
14. The result of the battle at Cowpens: _____

Answer Key for “Battles of the Revolution”

1. Oct. 6–19, 1781
2. St. Lawrence River
3. North Carolina
4. northwest
5. Jan. 17, 1781
6. American victory
7. Concord, Lexington, Bunker Hill
8. British victory
9. Freeman’s Farm, Bennington
10. draw
11. Concord and Lexington
12. British victory
13. New Jersey
14. American victory