The World Within and the World Without ~ Ms. Bandali

I see the world for what it could be, yet it falls and withers away.

I see nature bore into wood and wonder where simplicity went.

We are absorbed by our technology and the relationships between melt into lost glaciers deep within the sea.

I stand in sorrow waiting for the moment and yet it is gone.

I see the world for what it is and I look in despair for who will change this path but thy spirit guide

Madge-Badge ~ Ms. Bandali

Out of darkness she appeared

Like a shadow in the twilight

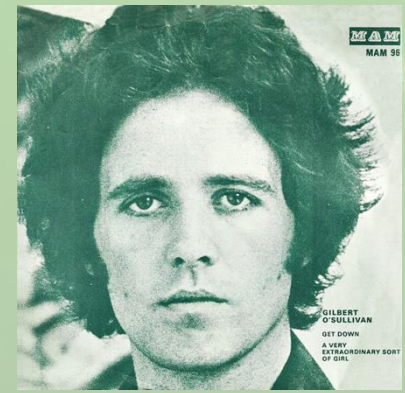

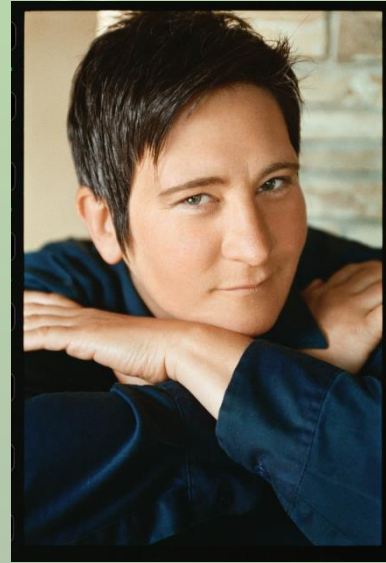

Undulating black carpet moving

Eyes glinting gold then emerald

Just like magic
