

Remember those you love
Every day they live in our hearts
Many lost but never forgotten
Eternity on the wings of a dove
Miles and miles apart
Bring a poppy see the truth
Every year forever more Realize that the past projects into the future
Alive they once were
Not men but merely children
Clinging to a hope for a better future
Everyone becoming family

Dreams of a free Canada
Abandon the past and we forget Years pass seamlessly and we repeat the past only if we fail to remember
