Welcome to Textiles 9! Over the next 2.5 months, we will explore a variety of concepts related to Textiles. Textiles 9 is the foundation for Textiles 10 and consecutive Textiles courses.

By the end of this course, you will have developed an important foundation of skills, attitudes, knowledge and respect for Textiles.

The Big Ideas that you need to be able to understand are as follows:

1. Social, ethical, and sustainability considerations impact design.
2. Complex tasks require the sequencing of skills.
3. Complex tasks require different technologies and tools at different stages.

The Big Ideas will be developed by considering the following topics, which will be covered in various degrees of detail over the course.

- Natural and manufactured fibres, including their origins, characteristics, uses, and care
- Strategies for using and modifying simple patterns
- Elements of design used in the design of a textile item
- Social factors that influence textile choices and the impact of those choices on local communities
- Role of textiles in First Peoples cultures

Course Evaluation:

Assignments	35 %
Quizzes and Tests	15 %
Projects	25 %
Final Project	25 %
Total	100%

Class Expectations:

Attendance→ Regular attendance is key to success in Textiles 9. If, for whatever reason you are away, YOU are responsible to get any notes, handouts, and/or information from your contact person, the front folder box, or from the website (www.learnwithmissbandali.weebly.com).

Homework & Assignments→ Although time will be given to complete most assignments in class; some assignments will require time out of the class to finish. When homework is assigned, it is due the next day at the beginning of the class. All work to be handed in must be clearly labeled with name, date, and assignment information.

Required Materials: Have these with you every day.

- Binder with loose-leaf paper
- Ruler
- Pens of various colors
- Pencils
- Eraser
- Well rested and inquisitive mind

Quizzes & Tests

Quizzes and tests will be taken at regular intervals throughout the course. Please be on time as extra time will not be given. If you are away during a test for a legitimate reason you may take the test at a different time (within 2-3 days of your return to school). Please have all necessary material with you when you are scheduled to write the test.

Textiles can be a very rewarding course if you engage in it. You need to be an active member of class, involve yourself in discussions, ask questions to clarify, and extend your learning.

I am available before school from approximately 8:10 - 8:32, most lunch hours and sometimes after school for extra help. Please see me if you need extra help.
